

Thank you for introducing such a meaningful approach...

~ 2008 course participant

This course solidified adult learning principles for me.

~ 2008 course participant

You are invited and encouraged to join us for...

Basics of Adult Learning Theory & Practice: A Dialogue Education Approach

June 12, 2008 ~ 1:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Perspectives Study Program, a ministry of the U.S. Center for World Mission

The Westin Dallas Fort Worth Airport Hotel • 4545 West John Carpenter Freeway, Irving, TX 75063

In this half-day workshop, you will:

- ♦ Explore key principles of effective adult learning theory
- ♦ Examine learning-centered approaches for designing your classes and teaching your students
- ♦ Analyze elements of learning design using the Seven Steps of Design
- ♦ Experience effective and engaging learning activities
- ♦ Identify key elements of learning activities
- ♦ Experience the Dialogue Education, learning-centered approach.

Dialogue Education offers a unique synthesis of the key insights of adult learning theory as formulated by the founder of Global Learning Partners, Dr. Jane Vella. DE provides a structured and accountable method of organizing, designing and facilitating learning events of all kinds, balancing content and participation, and helping to the make the events both effective and engaging. The focus is active (rather than passive) learning.

To Register:

Register online by May 15, 2008:

<https://www.onlineregistrationcenter.com/register.asp?m=96&c=2462>

For more information, contact Karen Ridout, GLP Partner and Certified Teacher
919.210.6740 ~ karen@globalearning.com

About Global Learning Partners...

Global Learning Partners provides Dialogue Education training and consultancy services to individuals and organizations in order to improve the process and results of their learning programs. For more information about GLP and Dialogue Education, visit: www.globalearning.com.